GWR February Luncheon at Hudson Hickory House BBQ Hosted by Lyn Brown

A big thank you to Lyn Brown for hosting and getting us together in February! Our GWR Club has enjoyed February luncheons at Hudson's Hickory House BBQ in Douglasville, GA for the past 3 years (maybe more?). This year the weather was gorgeous and the restaurant was packed. Lyn treated us all to Valentine suckers & pencils, fried green beans, fried onion rings and fried pickles – we loved them! They are always delicious and something we look forward to every time. Twelve members gathered for our event: Lyn Brown, Fred & Kathy Genrich, Dennis & Jean Harrison, Franklin & Margaret Jackson, John & Leslie Keener, and Roy & Sarah Sowers.

The fried appetizers here are so good – especially with the ranch dipping sauce, makes me think somebody should learn how to cook them – and offer them to us more often. We all enjoyed a good healthy BBQ meal and had no room for dessert. Some of us had dinner plans and needed to make some or keep some room, others decided not to eat until the next day.

After a delicious meal, we checked our devices and the environmental sound levels were way above our standard meeting requirements, so we moved our Club meeting outside to a nearby park and enjoyed the weather while talking “club business”. We all jumped in our vehicles and drove 5 minutes to Hunter Park off of Gurley Road. It was a beautiful day for a meeting and lots of business was conducted. Actually, we just did the usual reports and then reviewed our assignments for our upcoming State Rally in April and talked about our “no host” outing in March.

In the sunshine, Dennis held an excellent meeting where most of us faced the sun.
