NOT BIG-BUT A GOODIE

At our February outing in Eufula, Alabama, we had only ten coaches, but had oodles of fun and fellowship. Even the cold rain on Friday didn't dampen our spirits. Saturday and Sunday were nice enough to make up for it.

The Valentine's Day decorations in the club house were superb and the table arrangement was unique. Just the thing for a small group. The Boatfields and Heaths were wonderful hosts.

On Friday night we went to dinner at the Lakepoint Restaurant and met at the club house later for "Chase the Ace."

Saturday morning started with pancakes and syrup, sausages, juice and coffee. Following we had our business meeting and were free for lunch and the afternoon.

Saturday evening we were treated to homemade spaghetti, sauce, meatballs, plain and garlic bread, salads, and all kinds of desserts. It was great!

After that we played "Chase the Ace" and visited, and ate leftover dessert from that wonderful dinner.

Hosts James & Rene Boatfield and Rickey & Patricia Heath dish out delicious spaghetti and meatballs for our Saturday dinner.

By rearranging a few pipes, I've discovered a way to store more fresh water."

A doctor calls a plumber in the middle of the night because his toilet is running and keeping him awake. The plumber drives out and fixes the problem in about fifteen minutes. A week later, the doctor receives a bill for four hundred dollars. Enraged, he calls the plumber to complain. "I'm a doctor and I don't even charge sixteen hundred bucks an hour!" And the plumber calmly replies, "I didn't either when I was a doctor."

OUR MARCH OUTING WAS G-R-E-A-T!

The weather at the Leisure Acre RV Park in Cleveland, GA on March 9, 10 & 11th was just right. With 24 coaches, three couples as guests and one first-time member we had a grand old time!

The "Homer Bunch" were outstanding hosts/hostesses. For the Friday evening meal they prepared three types of chili, rice, slaw and desserts. It was all delicious. Afterwards "Chase the Ace" and other games were played.

We helped celebrate Fred Tomsett's 60th birthday with a theme cake - Lumberjack! He will be a lumberjack in the Saturday night entertainment in Perry at the Georgia State Rally. Looking on, and enjoying it immensely, is Gladys Cain, one of our wonderful hostesses.

The Senior's Breakfast Special We went to breakfast at a restaurant where the "senior's special" was two eggs, bacon, hash browns and toast for $1.99.

"Sounds good," my wife said, "but I don't want the eggs."

Then I'll have to charge you two dollars and forty-nine cents because you're ordering a la carte, the waitress warned her.

You mean I'd have to pay for not taking the eggs?" my wife asked incredulously.

"YES!!" stated the waitress. "I'll take the special."

"How do you want your eggs?" "Raw and in the shell," my wife replied.

She took the two eggs home. DON'T MESS WITH SENIORS!!! We've been around the block more than once.

 Life Is Tough, . . . It's Tougher When You're Stupid! A mother calls 911 very worried asking the dispatcher if she needs to take her kid to the emergency room, the kid was eating ants. The dispatcher tells her to give the kid some Benadryl and he should be fine. The mother says, "I just gave him some ant killer." Dispatcher: "Rush him in to emergency!"
