LATE BREAKING NEWS!

Suspense-suspense-suspense! See column one for details.

What a great Georgia Winnie Rebel State Outing. Sunshine everywhere and not a cloud in sight. The 16 coaches with 31 happy campers enjoyed our May State outing at the Twin Oaks RV Park in Elko, Georgia. The Park was roomy, well-kept and everyone seemed pleased with the facilities.

Many early birds caravanned to the Oil Lamp Restaurant in Perry. Even though the outing wasn't officially started, we enjoyed each other's company, as you can see above.

The Carriage House Restaurant

The outing was officially kicked off on Friday evening by caravanning to the Carriage House Restaurant. We were impressed with the light, airy dining room with white table cloths, napkins and friendly, efficient servers.

Our delicious dinner was followed by luscious Chocolate Eclair Cake, topped with chocolate ice cream in the Park's Club house - m-m-m-m-m!

MEET OUR STATE OUTING GUESTS

*Susie & Shelby Bowles
from Monticello, GA*

It was a pleasure to have Shelby and Susie with us at our recent State outing. We think they will join one of our Chapters, but haven't yet decided which.

*Andrea & Harold Callaway
from Zebulon, GA*

Harold made Brunswick stew for us for the Saturday night dinner, and it was outstanding. We have to be sure to capture these two.

“Chase the Ace” entertained several after dessert, with Margaret Jackson being the winner.

Milt Burch deals the cards for “Chase the Ace.”

Saturday morning’s breakfast would have been just right for a logging crew. Sausage, gravy, scrambled eggs, biscuits, grits, coffee and juice, with extra side items brought a lot of smiles.

Denny Harrison minded the gravy

Kathy Scogin cooked the sausage

It was a great place, and we weren’t the only ones that enjoyed the abundance of unusual fish.

Saturday evening dinner was “pot luck.” The hosts prepared a huge plate of spiral sliced ham and we all contributed the rest. One of our guests, Howard Callaway, surprised us with homemade Brunswick stew and it was delicious.

Our State business meeting followed immediately after dinner. Our new slate of officers are as follow: President - Sid Sidlauskas; Vice President - Wayne Thomas; Treasurer - Ronnie Padgett; and Secretary - Theda Chambless.

DOOR PRIZES

After our business meeting we drew for door prizes that were contributed by Dean and Peggy Woodruff of Integrity RV Service Center in Douglasville, Georgia.

Franklin Jackson gave a very important, much-needed item to a lucky winner.

We said our goodbyes Sunday morning after a breakfast of fresh pastry items, and leftover goodies from the previous breakfast.

It was another good outing!

FUN PICTURES

Fun at “Go Fish”

The fish caught Hubert instead of the other way around.

Looks like Denny just caught a big one, but I think there is a leak in his boat.

Guest Susie Bowles had fun drawing names for door prizes for Jesse Chambless.

It looks like Grace Crovalt is telling Pat Thomas, “and this is the way it needs to be done.”

JoAn Blankenship headed up “Chase the Ace” and seemed to have fun.
