While the eight couples attending our November outing were enjoying the brisk mountain air, the staff at the Leisure Acres Campground in Cleveland, GA were busily decorating their RV park for Christmas. Santa was supposed to be their main helper, but it seems he got stuck in a tree.

Our hosts, Bobby & Wanda Eubanks and Milton & Melva Dalton, did their usual outstanding job. We have nicknamed them "The Fabulous Four," and that is what they are!

Our hosts, the "Fabulous Four"

What could have been better to kick off the outing on a very brisk day than homemade chili.

Wanda served Margaret Jackson because she wasn't feeling well. But with all the good treatment, she was much better before the outing was over.

As usual, the thing we enjoy most is the renewing of friendships and going over everything that has happened since we last saw each other. We also discuss the problems we have had with our coaches, and the helpful people we have met along the way.

Barbara and John Balducci from Jasper, GA joined us while awaiting their WIT number from the home office.

For Saturday morning breakfast we had breakfast casseroles, grits and cheese, biscuits, juice and coffee. A great start for a great day.

Immediately following breakfast we had our required business meeting. As President Milton Dalton said, "Short and Sweet," just the way we like it.

There are so many things to see around the Cleveland area. The neighboring towns of Helen and Dahlonega kept lots of us occupied all day Saturday, until it was time to get together again to eat - eat - eat !

This time our hosts outdid themselves - turkey and all the trimmings', plus side dishes and desserts from members. Fred & Linda enjoyed it!

After dinner, there was such laughter and kidding around that you could hardly hear the person next to you. It was a fun time!

Barbara Bell displays one of the door prizes furnished by Integrity Service Center of Douglasville, GA. Dean and Peggy Woodruff, owners of Integrity, have continued to support Gone with the Winnies and Georgia Winnie Rebels on a regular basis.

Sunday morning we had a continental breakfast.

Devotions by Chaplain Jesse Chambless followed breakfast.

We then said our goodbyes until our next outing December 12-14 at River Country Campground in Gadsden, Alabama.

It was another good one!
