OUR BIRTHDAY BOY

Vice President Milton Dalton
 We're looking forward to having him as president during 2012!

Jesse Chambless held devotions Sunday morning after breakfast before starting home. It was enjoyed by all. A good send off!

THE LAST GWTW OUTING OF 2011

Mark this date on your calendar and don't miss it!

December 9-11, 2011 - At the River Country RV Park in Gadsden, AL (256) 543-7111. Hosted by Tom & Betty McHaney (706-356-2296) and Jim and Barbara Bell (706-779-2647).

If you've never been to the River Country Campground in Gadsden, Alabama at Christmas time, you have missed a real treat. Thousands of lights reflect across the water, multiplying the dazzling effect. Nighttime scenes as shown above and below dot the landscape adding to the holiday enchantment.

A beautifully decorated club house with the "Toys for Tots" Christmas tree adds to the enjoyment. (Don't forget to take your toys.)

Also, each person should bring a gift to exchange, not to exceed $10.00.

We have been known to go caroling for the enjoyment of the other visitors at the park (and also for our own enjoyment.)

OUR NOVEMBER OUTING

Fall is the perfect time for an outing. The weather is nippy at night and brisk during the day. From November 11th through 13th we enjoyed our stay at the Holiday Trav-L-Park in Chattanooga, Tennessee. We had ten coaches present, and our fabulous hosts made sure we all enjoyed ourselves.

Christel & James Cason and Bob & Eileen Clark, our hosts and hostesses.

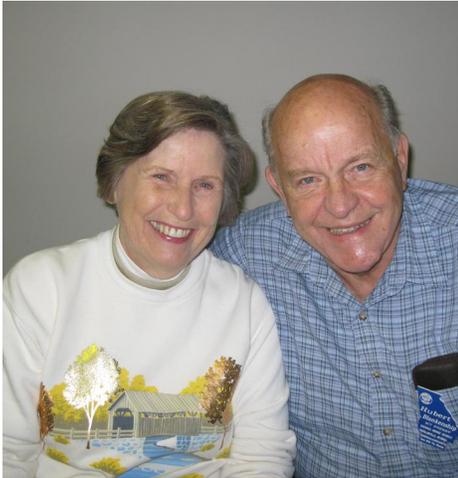

Friday night we drove to a Greek/Italian restaurant. Afterwards we met at the club house for our monthly business meeting. Our hosts served coffee and cake, which was delicious.

Saturday breakfast of sausage, eggs, biscuits, coffee and juice started us off right for a day of exploring: flea markets, aquariums, Lookout Mountain, etc. There's always plenty to do around Chattanooga.

Saturday evening meal in the club house was an early Thanksgiving. The hosts made turkey, dressing, gravy, ham and everyone brought a side dish. Afterwards we just talked and visited. You'd've thought we hadn't seen each other in years.

Sunday morning we had breakfast and devotions and headed back to our respective homes. It was another good one!
